Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Regensburg

Your tour begins in Regensburg, the most northern town on the Danube. This town is considered Germany's best preserved city and has been declared a UNESCO Heritage Site. Take some time to explore the lovely parks and gardens as well as the historic old town.

Day 2: Regensburg – Abensberg / Bad Gögging, approx. 55 / 50 km + boat trip

You start your cycling tour going upstream to Kelheim, where Mother Nature has something special in store in the form of the Danube Gap. Many, many years ago, the Danube curved its way through the massive Jura rocks here. Today you follow the Danube through this narrow passageway by boat. In the beer garden of Weltenburg Monastery, fortify yourself for the next section of the tour.

Day 3: Bad Gögging – Neuburg, approx. 65 / 60 km

You have a leisurely cycle through fields of hops to Ingolstadt, not only the seat of the Audi works but also a very well preserved old Bavarian fortress town. Over 500 years ago, the Bavarian Purity Law on beer was passed here. In Neuburg, you'll see one of the most beautiful renaissance castles along the Danube.

Day 4: Neuburg – Eichstätt, ca. 60 km

Today you cycle from the Danube to the Altmühl by way of Wellheim valley, which was originally created by the original course of the Danube. You dip into unspoiled nature with clear views of the scenery - dry grassland and impressive rock formations, for which the Altmühl valley is well known. You follow this path from Dollnstein to Eichstätt.

Day 5: Eichstätt – Beilngries, approx. 45 km

In Eichstätt take the opportunity before you leave to visit the Jura museum, which has lots of fossils of dinosaurs from the area. Your cycle tour today takes you through a juniper heath in Altmühltal valley to your destination, the charming town of Beilngries.

Day 6: Beilngries – Essing / Kelheim, ca. 40 / 50 km

From Dietfurt, you follow the Altmühl in the bed of the Main-Danube canal and soon reach Prunn Castle, which towers majestically over the river. In Kelheim you reach the end of today's section - which is also the end of the Altmühl. From here it flows into the Danube. If your legs aren't wobbling too much, go and visit the Hall of Liberation, which offers great views of the area.

Day 7: Kelheim – Regensburg, approx. 50 / 40 km

Before you set off to Regensburg, it's worth making the effort to cycle up to the Hall of Liberation, where you have incredible views of the area. Continue at a more leisurely pace on to Regensburg, where you reach the most northerly point of the Danube. This town is considered Germany's best-preserved city and has been declared a UNESCO Heritage Site.

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
