Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Stockholm

After your arrival in Stockholm, take some time for a first tour of the town. The town hall with its striking corner tower is an example of Swedish national romanticism. Of particular significance is the parallel existence of architecture and water. Inside, you'll find not only the offices, conference rooms and halls typical of a town hall. In the Blue Room, for example, there is a great banquet held every year for the Nobel Prize winners. Wander through the narrow streets of the historic quarter in Gamla Stan on the island of Stadsholmen. In the next few days, discover one of the largest and best preserved medieval cities in Europe! In the evening there's a personal tourist information event and if you've booked bikes, they will be provided then.

Day 2: Stockholm – Södertälje, approx. 60 km

At the start of the cycle tour, you cycle along the Mälaren in a south-westerly direction to Södertälje. Sweden's third largest lake is a popular recreational area for locals. Drottningholm Castle is located on one of the many islands in the lake. The route continues past meadows and fields, occasionally through small forests, to the small town of Södertälje, which is situated on the canal between Mälaren and the Baltic Sea.

Day 3: Södertälje – Mariefred, approx. 45 km

Today, the banks of the Mälaren are your constant travelling companion. Cycle along small side roads to Gripsholm Castle. The castle-like complex was built in the 16th century by the Swedish King Gustav I Wasa and became famous in this country through Kurt Tucholsky's novel of the same name. The important publicist lived in exile in Sweden from 1930. Continue to today's destination of Mariefred.

Day 4: Mariefred – Järna, approx. 45 km

The day is all about the unspoilt natural landscape of the province of Sörmland: pure picture-book idyll! There are numerous rivers and lakes here - as well as a few climbs, which are easy to master and reward you with wonderful views. The small town of Järna is located between meadows, pastures and forests, close to the Baltic Sea.

Day 5: Järna – Trosa, approx. 50 km

Today's destination is the idyllic Baltic town of Trosa, where many of the popular Inga Lindström films were shot. At the beginning of the 15th century, the village was an important trading centre. Numerous flat wooden houses, the waterfront promenade and the archipelago in front of the town give the town its special flair.

Day 6: Trosa – Stockholm, approx. 55 km

The last cycling stage takes you back to Stockholm. In the afternoon, you can take the S-Bahn to the city centre and then cycle to the southern city island of Södermalm. The former working-class neighbourhood has developed into a real trendy district that is particularly popular with artists and students. The charm of the people of Stockholm - Scandinavian directness paired with an almost Mediterranean relaxedness - is particularly noticeable here.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
