Stages description

Day 1: Individuelle Anreise nach Vytina

The best way to arrive is by plane to Athens or alternatively to Kalamata. The transfer bus (not included) will take you comfortably from Athens to your hotel in Vytina. The small mountain village is a popular weekend destination for Athenians. Enjoy your first evening in Greece in a lovely restaurant in the alleyways of Vytina.

planted courtyard and the excavations of the ancient city of Eva. Roll relaxed to Paralio Astros, a picturesque fishing village with a kilometre-long pebble beach. You decide whether you want to cool off in the clear water or relax in a cosy restaurant.

Day 2: Vytina – Tripoli, approx. 40 km

Your cycle tour in Greece begins with a wonderful cycle route. You cycle along idyllic, small roads through the mountain ranges of the Peloponnese. The rugged mountains rise up to the right and left. Green forests and small picturesque villages accompany you until you reach the lively capital of the region. Take a stroll through Tripoli and enjoy the evening in one of the many tavernas in the old town.

Day 5: Paralio Astros – Nafplio, approx. 45 km

Fascinating views of the glittering sea and the small fishing boats swaying in the wind accompany you on today's stage along the coastal road. You will soon reach Argos, one of the oldest cities in Europe. Not only the fortress, but also the amphitheatre built into the mountain are impressive contemporary witnesses that you should visit. Continue cycling through the fertile plain until you reach the beautifully situated town of Nafplio. Spend the afternoon in the old town and stroll through the narrow streets and along the beautiful harbour promenade with its numerous cafés.

Day 3: Excursion to the Kapsia stalactite cave, approx. 45 km

On the fertile plateau around Tripoli, you drive through vast apple orchards, vineyards and fruit fields. The small, rather inconspicuous municipality of Kapsia hides a sensational beauty. A magnificent stalactite cave with bizarre stalactite formations in a wonderful play of colours - a guided tour (not included) is definitely worthwhile! Afterwards, you can sample delicious wines directly from the winegrower before cycling back to Tripoli after a stop in ancient Mantinea.

The upcoming ascent is quickly forgotten as soon as you arrive in one of the most important cities of antiquity. Mycenae is the destination of today's stage of your cycle tour in Greece. You will be amazed by the numerous impressive excavations and remarkable finds. Right at the entrance, you will walk through the Lion Gate and later discover shaft tombs and cisterns. On the way back, enjoy the ride through the vast orange and lemon groves and look forward to another overnight stay in Nafplio.

Day 4: Tripoli – Paralio Astros, approx. 55 km

There are numerous highlights to discover on today's stage of your cycle tour in Greece. Firstly, you cycle past the ruins of the Temple of Athena Alea. Cycle through vast olive groves towards the sea. Visit the Loukous monastery, built in the 12th century, with its beautifully

Day 7: Excursion to Epidaurus, approx. 40 km + transfer

Another historical highlight awaits you today. You will reach Epidaurus comfortably by transfer bus. You will be impressed by the amphitheatre, which is over 2300 years old. Can you imagine that it could hold 14,000 spectators in its day? After an extensive tour, you cycle through the mountainous karst landscape and a vast pistachio-growing area towards the coast. There is no better way to enjoy your last evening than with a refreshing dip in the crystal-clear sea and a meal in a Greek taverna.

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
