Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Lisbon

Welcome to your cycling vacation in Portugal! Explore the sights of the city right after check-in at the hotel. The best place to start is the Baixa district, in the heart of Lisbon, with its tile facades and narrow streets. Equally worth seeing is the Torre de Belém right on the Tagus River. Not far from the tower, the Ponte 25 de Abril spans the river. The almost 2300 meter long bridge is one of the longest suspension bridges in the world. In the evening, enjoy dishes of Portuguese cuisine and treat yourself to a glass of port wine.

Day 2: Lisbon – Setúbal, approx. 65 km + ferry ride

The first stage of your cycling vacation in Portugal begins with a short bike ride to the port of Lisbon. You will take a ferry across the wide Tagus River to Seixal on the Setúbal Peninsula. You cycle south on the peninsula and reach the Arrábida Nature Park. Enjoy beautiful views over the coast, which is dotted with the odd beach. In your destination for the day, Setúbal, it is worth visiting the Forte de São Filipe above the city. The fortification once served to protect the mouth of the Sado River into the Atlantic.

Day 3: Setúbal – Sines, approx. 70 km + ferry ride

In the morning you will take the ferry to the Tróia peninsula. With a bit of luck, you might spot dolphins cavorting in the water. Not far from the coast of the island, you will pass beautiful, spacious beaches where you can plunge into the water or simply enjoy the view of the seemingly endless Atlantic Ocean - simply wonderful! On the way, miles of rice fields will catch your eye on Tróia. Rice cultivation came with the rule of the Moors in the 8th century. With Sines you have reached your destination for the day. The most famous son of the city is the navigator Vasco da Gama. He is commemorated by a statue right next to the Castello de Sines.

Day 4: Sines – Vila Nova de Mil Fontes, approx. 40 km

Today's day of your cycling vacation in Portugal takes you to one of the most natural stretches of coastline in Europe, that of the Parque Natural do Sudoeste Alentejano e Costa Vicentina. In the natural park, enjoy the rich animal and plant life and the wide beaches framed by slate and limestone cliffs. Via the small town of Porto Côvo you cycle through the typical Alentejo landscape with extensive fields, cork oak and pine groves and reach Vila Nova de Milfontes. Directly at the mouth of the Rio Mira into the Atlantic Ocean is the Forte de São Clemente. The old fortress served as early as the 16th century from attacks by pirates.

Day 5: Vila Nova de Mil Fontes – Aljezur, approx. 65 km

Today you will continue cycling through the nature park. Your first break should be at the Cabo Sardão lighthouse, not far from the town of Odemira. At the rugged cliffs you not only have the opportunity to watch the roaring surf and enjoy the salty sea air, you can also observe storks that have set up their nests in the rocks – unique in the world. With the picturesque village of Odeceixe you have reached the Algarve region. A few kilometers away, your stage destination Aljezur awaits you. The small town shines with its whitewashed houses, which are lined up between a river up the slope to a former castle.

Day 6: Aljezur – Sagres, approx. 60 km

Last but not least, your cycling vacation in Portugal will take you to the end of the world. First, you will once again enjoy the incomparably beautiful view of the sea and cycling! Soon you will reach the surfers paradise Carrapateira, which lies in the middle of a magnificent dune landscape. The bike path continues to Cabo de São Vicente, which many hundreds of years ago was considered the end of the world and marks the most southwestern point of mainland Europe. Visit the lighthouse located on a cliff before heading towards your destination of Sagres. At Praia do Tonel in the evening, you can not only watch the sunset, but look back on an exciting and impressive journey.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
