Two world cities, endless beaches & fishing villages

From Eur 989,-

Your tour

From Porto, you cycle southwards along picturesque coastal paths. The fabulous nature is not stingy with its beauties along the way: Pine forests, cork oaks, shifting sand dunes, jagged rocks, silvery glistening waters and golden sandy beaches lie along the way. Surfers from all over the world are attracted by the surf in Nazaré, where the highest waves in the world pile up. With Porto and Lisbon, you will get to know Portugal's two most beautiful cities.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Porto

After your arrival at Porto airport, the adventure of your cycling holiday in Portugal can begin! You will be transferred to your booked hotel, from where you can visit the former cultural capital either on foot or already from the saddle of your rental bike. The historic centre and the Douro riverbank on the Gaia side, where the port wine cellars are located, are classified as World Heritage Sites. Discover the lively city where the train station is housed in a former monastery and the facades of the houses are so colourful that they immediately put you in a good mood! Optional wine tasting in a historic wine cellar in Porto (Not included in the tour price).

Day 2: Porto – Furadouro region, approx. 40 km

Today you leave Porto behind you and set off on the first stage of your cycling vacation in Portugal. Not far from the Atlantic coast, you head south through pine forests and seaside resorts. You set course for Furadouro, a popular surfing hotspot. The beaches here are miles long. The local fishermen of Furadouro still work according to time-honored traditions and pull mussels, sardines and crabs ashore in nets. You should try a freshly caught fish or the stockfish that is so popular in Portugal for dinner.

Day 3: Furadouro – Aveiro, approx. 40 km + ferry ride

You first cycle along the inland lakes of the Dunas de São Jacinto nature reserve. The nature park is a coastal area with solid dunes and shifting sand dunes, pine forests and freshwater ponds - a paradise for many bird species. A ferry ride takes you to Aveiro. There you will be amazed by the many canals and the colorfully painted wooden ships. Take a short trip on a moliceiro, which are used to collect seaweed, and watch the hustle and bustle of Aveiro from the water.

Day 4: Aveiro – Praia de Mira region, approx. 35 km

The route first takes you along the Ria de Aveiro, a water landscape, to Costa Nova. Take a break on the beautiful beach of the fishing village before continuing south. You will soon reach Praia de Mira, your destination for the day. A fine sandy beach awaits you here too. In the evening, enjoy freshly caught fish in one of the small restaurants and the seemingly endless view of the sea.

Day 5: Praia de Mira – Figueira da Foz, approx. 45 km

Cycle through a gently undulating dune landscape and past pine forests to Cabo Mondego with its square lighthouse not far from the Atlantic. Today's stage of your cycle tour in Portugal continues to Figueira da Foz. The town's beach is famous throughout the country. And rightly so: due to its width and special light conditions, it was given the name Praia da Claridade – beach of brightness.

Day 6: Figueira da Foz – Sintra – Cascais approx. 45 km + transfer

In the morning, a transfer takes you to Sintra. The city has a very special flair thanks to its centuries-old palaces, villas and gardens. The city's landmark is the Palácio Nacional de Sintra, a former royal palace. Its white, conical chimneys immediately catch your eye. Continue towards the coast. Magnificent views of the sea accompany you to Cascais, your destination for today.

Day 7: Cascais – Lissabon approx. 40 km

Today's cycle tour takes you to Lisbon, the capital of Portugal. Situated on seven hills, the city will delight you with its cozy squares, small alleyways, lovely parks, beautiful churches, historic buildings and its riverbanks. Visit the Belém Tower, which welcomes approaching ships to the harbor. Or how about a visit to the Castelo de São Jorge, from whose viewing platform you have a wonderful view of the Tagus?

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
