Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Trogir, Trogir – Island of Šolta (boat), bike tour of Šolta, approx. 20 km / 210 hm

Your ship awaits you in the port of Trogir for island hopping in Croatia for the sporty. After embarkation between 1.00 and 2.00 p.m. you will get to know the tour guide, the crew and your fellow passengers during a welcome drink on board. While you enjoy a snack, it's „Cast off!“ The first destination is Maslinica on the island of Šolta. The small island is known among connoisseurs for its dark olive oil. On a first bike tour you cycle through original old villages. On the tour you will pass Gornje Selo, where you will visit an oil mill and also taste the olive oil produced there. The route continues via Grohote to Stomorska, where dinner is served on board and you spend the night in the harbour.

Day 2: Šolta Island – Island of Brač (boat), bike tour of Brač, approx. 55 km / 1030 hm

The day begins with a one-hour ride to Milna on the island of Brač. By bike you cross the island from west to south to the well-known seaside resort of Bol. Take the chance to stop at a small, typical Dalmatian restaurant, a konoba. If you still haven't had enough after the climb of around 500 metres in altitude, you can make a detour to Vidova Gora, the highest mountain on the Adriatic islands at 778 metres. As a reward, you get a unique view over the islands of Šolta, Korčula and Hvar, as well as the Pelješac peninsula. From there you can already see your destination for the day, Bol, with the „Golden Horn“. The „Golden Horn“, Zlatni Rat, is one of the most beautiful beaches on the Mediterranean!

Day 3: Island of Brač – Vis Island (boat), bike tour on Vis, approx. 30 km / 670 hm

After breakfast, you will sail to the „forbidden“ island of Vis. Don't worry, since the end of the 1980s, foreign visitors have also been allowed to enter the island, which was previously denied to you. Where there used to be an air force base with a runway, olives and wine are now grown. Discover the almost untouched nature of the hilly island by bike. From the harbour you cycle via Dračevo Polje to Komiža. Take the opportunity for lunch here before cycling back to the town of Vis. Dinner will be served on board.

Day 4: Insel Vis – Island of Korčula (boat), bike tour of Korčula, approx. 50 km / 890 hm

The day starts with a three-hour crossing to the island of Korčula. Let the sun shine on your belly during the ride! After reaching the bay of Vela Luka in the west of the island, you continue on your bike to the town of Korčula in the southeast. You cycle through pine and oak forests, which cover more than half of the island's surface. You will cycle around the island's biggest climbs on small roads. Treat yourself to a traditional lunch on the way. Today you will spend the night in the town of Korčula. After dinner on board, you can explore the walled and turreted town with its Renaissance Gothic centre.

Day 5: Korčula – Island of Hvar (boat), bike tour of Hvar, approx. 50 km / 700 hm, Hvar – Brač (boat)

You start the day with a morning boat trip. You will sail past the Pelješac peninsula. Don't miss the view of the impressive mountain range with its highest peak of 961 m, Sveti Ilija, as you sail past! The destination is the island of Hvar, the island with the most hours of sunshine and the mildest climate of the Adriatic islands. From Sućuraj you cycle through beautiful vineyards and olive groves to the cosy town of Jelsa on the north coast. Back on board, fortify yourself with lunch while your ship sets course for the island of Brač. Before your floating hotel anchors in the port of Postira or Pučišća, you should take advantage of the scheduled swimming break and plunge into the waters of the Mediterranean. Look forward to the Captain's Dinner, which will be served this evening.

Day 6: Brač – Omiš (boat), bike tour, approx. 25 km / 390 hm & Rafting tour, Omiš – Split (boat)

In the morning you leave the island world and set course for the mainland. After arriving in Krilo Jesenice, you will be transferred to Omiš. From there you cycle along the river Cetina. Through untouched nature, past rock formations up to 180 m high, waterfalls and lakes, you cycle along the riverbed through the Cetina canyon. In Pavića Most you swap your bike for a rubber dinghy and off you go on your rafting tour! Accompanied by experienced skippers, you'll be sailing downstream over gentle rapids through unique nature. Do you dare to jump off one of the 5 m high rocks on the way?

If you don't feel like rafting, you can also just cycle a bit further. After lunch on board, the ship leaves the harbour for Split. During a guided tour of the old town, you will learn more about the history and life of the city.

Day 7: Bike tour around Split, approx. 20 km / 250 hm, Split – Trogir (boat)

After strengthening yourself at breakfast, you cycle through thousands of pines to Mount Marjan, not far from Split. After the short tour, your bikes will be loaded onto the ship for the last time today. Take a last look at Split before lunch is served on the ship and you slowly but surely head towards your destination Trogir. In a bay on the small island of Čiovo you will have another opportunity to refresh yourself in the cool water. You can use the rest of the day in Trogir for sightseeing. Stroll through the winding alleys of the old town and marvel at the medieval vaults and fascinating courtyards. Learn more about the city on a guided tour before dining out in one of the countless restaurants in the evening.

Day 8: Individual departure from Trogir

After breakfast it is time to say goodbye. Take advantage of the opportunity to soak up some Croatian sun after disembarkation at 9.00 a.m. before you start your individual journey home. We hope you enjoyed your time during the island hopping in Croatia for sporty people to the fullest.
