Your tour

In the Dolomites you will encounter crystal-clear lakes in which the impressive rock formations of the surrounding mountains are reflected. You cycle along the route of the former Dolomite railway to Bressanone, Bolzano and Trento. This tour has been specially planned as an e-bike loop, but of course this wonderful trip can also be done by sporty cyclists on a normal bike.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Niederdorf / Toblach

Your e-bike-tour around the Dolomites begins in the middle of the Hochpustertal (the high Puster Valley), at its highest point in Toblach or Niederdorf. The watershed between the Adriatic and the Black Sea is located here. A visit to the Höhlenstein Valley with a view of the majestic Drei Zinnen (Tre Cime di Lavaredo) is recommended. The winter sport town of Toblach also has much to offer, even in Summer.

Day 2: Toblach – Cortina d'Ampezzo – Pieve di Cadore, approx. 65 km

The journey begins in Alta Pusteria – in the heart of the natural paradise of the Dolomites. With the Three Peaks Nature Park on your left and the Fanes-Sennes-Prags Nature Park on your right, follow the panoramic trail along the former Dolomite railway line. Breathtaking views of the world-famous Three Peaks are guaranteed. After the gentle transition from South Tyrol to Veneto, you will reach Cortina d'Ampezzo – surrounded by majestic peaks and known as a glamorous Olympic town. The journey continues to Pieve di Cadore, through dense forests, impressive tunnels, and stunning mountain landscapes that bring the beauty and history of this unique region to life.

Day 3: Pieve di Cadore – Feltre, approx. 75 km

From Pieve di Cadore you cycle on through the impressive Alpine landscapes of this Dolomite region. The south via Longarone, a town that was completely rebuilt after the tragic landslide on Monte Toc in 1963 was completely rebuilt. You soon reach Belluno – a quiet, charming town – and continue through forests and idyllic villages. Your destination is Feltre, a historic town with views of the majestic Dolomites.

Day 4: Feltre – Trient, approx. 95 km or approx. 70 km + train ride

You leave Feltre, a charming jewel along the historic „Via Claudia Augusta“, and begin the climb north through the Valsugana Valley. You will soon reach Lake Caldonazzo - the largest natural lake in Trentino. If you wish, you can shorten the stage with an optional train ride (not included in the price). At the end of the day, you will reach Trient, where the lively historic center and the impressive Buonconsiglio Castle await you.

Day 5: Trient – Bozen, approx. 65 km

From Trient, follow the cycle path along the Adige, past vineyards and orchards. You reach the Salurner Klause, the language border between Trentino and South Tyrol. Continuing along the river, you reach Bolzano, the cultural and economic center of South Tyrol, where the stage ends.

Day 6: Bozen – Mühlbach (Brixen), approx. 45 km

The day begins in Bolzano, where Tyrolean and Mediterranean culture meet. After a stroll through the city or a visit to the archaeology museum with „Ötzi“, the cycle tour leads out of the city along the Isarco cycle path. On the way, you will pass Trostburg Castle and Säben Monastery. The route continues through vineyards and alpine landscapes to Brixen, where a walk through the old town and a visit to the cathedral round off the day.

Day 7: Brixen – Niederdorf / Toblach, approx. 65 km

Start in Brixen and leave the old town to follow the cycle path along the Eisack to the north. On the way, you will pass the mighty Franzensfeste fortress, the impressive Neustift and, shortly afterwards, the ruins of the Mühlbach hermitage. Continuing along the cycle path, you reach the green Pustertal valley, accompanied by the tranquil course of the Rienz river. A short stop in Bruneck is highly recommended: The lively pedestrian zone invites you to linger with its cafés, stores and alpine atmosphere. Just a few more kilometers and you will reach Alta Pusteria.

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
