Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Pisa

Un caloroso benvenuti - A warm welcome to Tuscany! Pisa is the ideal starting point for your cycling vacation along the Tuscan coast. The first route will naturally take you to the picturesque Piazza dei Miracoli. Marvel at the Duomo, the Baptistery and the world famous Leaning Tower of Pisa. Many tourists do not see more of Pisa than these three structures. Strolling through the winding streets, you will notice that the student city has thus been able to retain its original charm. The houses are kept in the typical yellow of the city, reminiscent of the time as a prosperous port city.

Day 2: Pisa – Lucca, approx. 35 km

Setting off from Pisa, you cycle northwards and reach the Serchia river, which takes you to Ripafratta. The small town has a castle and holds a strategically important position, situated as it is between Pisa and Lucca. For the more athletic, we have a longer and more challenging route along the east side of the Monti Pisani. Today's destination has a rich and confusingly varied history.

Day 3: Lucca – Montecatini Terme, approx. 40 km

You will leisurely cycle through the lowland plain before you reach the panorama road, which will take you to Collodi. Visit the Pinocchio Park and have a look at the aristocratic villa Garzoni. The former Lombard settlement Pescia thrives on paper production and flower cultivation. The flower market is especially worth seeing. Now it is not much further to your destination Montecatini.

Day 4: Excursion to Vinci, approx. 55 km

If you feel like taking a relaxing break, you can let yourself be pampered in one of Europe's most famous thermal spa towns. Alternatively, you can get back onto your bike and cycle to the birthplace of Leonardo da Vinci, the brilliant philosopher and natural scientist. The Tuscan landscape through which you will cycle has not changed much since his lifetime.

Day 5: Montecatini Terme – Pistoia, approx. 30 km

Today you will master the highest ascent of this journey on your bike. In Montevettolini you will be rewarded with a fantastic view. The small town is typical for Tuscany: Narrow, winding alleys lead you from the charming Piazza through the medieval town centre. After your break you will cycle to Pistoia, which is also known as Little Florence – a well-earned title.

Day 6: Pistoia – Florence, approx. 50 km

Before you get back onto your bike, take some time to marvel at the cathedral square and the Baptisterium in Pistoia. Afterwards your route will be comfortably flat. The plain in front of you is known for its fertile soil and plant diversity. In Florence, magnificent art, culture and architecture await you. Your cycle path will take you all the way to the famous Ponte Vecchio bridge.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
