Your tour

The northern Black Forest is characterized by its expressive and diverse landscape. Marked by dense forests, deep valleys and gorges, rushing rivers and a unique wildlife, it belongs to Germany's most popular holiday regions. From Bad Wildbad, you get to know the spa town Freudenstadt, the Kinzig valley around Hausach, the wine paradise Ortenau and the former residence town Rastatt. On your way, you must pedal strongly a few times, but don't worry, magnificent views and the enjoyable Black Forest kitchen compensate you for the struggles.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Bad Wildbad

Your arrival point is the historic spa town of Bad Wildbad. Here you can still feel a bit of the flair of the 19th century. Why don't you visit one of the two thermal baths and let the healing effects of the water take effect on you.

Day 2: Bad Wildbad – Freudenstadt, approx. 45 km + cable car

At the beginning of the day, you board the Sommerbergbahn and ride up to the high plateau of the Sommerberg. Here it is worth taking a walk on the tree-top walkway with the Wildline suspension bridge arching upward. It offers fantastic views of the surrounding hills and valleys of the northern Black Forest. You then cycle along the Black Forest Panorama Cycle Path to Freudenstadt.

Day 3: Freudenstadt – Hausach / Wolfach, approx. 45 km

At the beginning of the day, you have to climb a few meters. In the halftimbered town of Alpirsbach, however, you have completed the most strenuous part of the day. Famous for the beer of the same name, the former monastery town is the ideal place for your lunch break. You continue on the Kinzigtal cycle path to Wolfach or Hausach.

Day 4: Hausach – Offenburg, approx. 45 km

Your bike tour continues today along the Kinzig river. The history of the town of Haslach goes back to Roman times. The route continues via Steinach, Biberach and Gengenbach to Ohlsbach, where the Kinzig valley merges into the Rhine plain. Via the vineyards of the Ortenau you reach Offenburg.

Day 5: Offenburg – Rastatt, approx. 60 km

From Offenburg you cycle north along the edge of the Rhine plain. The route leads over the foothills of the Black Forest Nature Park to Baden-Baden. You spend the night in the former residence town of Rastatt, which impresses with its baroque buildings.

Day 6: Rastatt – Ettlingen, approx. 45 km

Today you cycle to Karlsruhe. The city has a fan-shaped ground plan with the Karlsruhe Castle in the center. After leaving Karlsruhe, you soon reach Ettlingen - your destination for today. An evening walk through the historic center will take you past many old half-timbered houses and town houses.

Day 7: Ettlingen – Bad Wildbad, approx. 40 km

Today you have a great panoramic view of the Black Forest at the Schwanner Warte near Straubenhardt. From Neuenbürg you cycle in the opposite direction of the Enz river, following in the footsteps of the Enz valley rafters. In the rafting museum in Calmbach you can learn more about the region, which is characterized by forestry and timber industry

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
