Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Enkhuizen Enkhuizen – Stavoren (boat)

Your round trip by bike and ship starts in the tranquil town of Enkhuizen. In the afternoon, the crew of your ship will welcome you. After the welcome, you will leave Enkhuizen and cross the IJsselmeer in the direction of Friesland. With Stavoren you will reach your destination for the day. Immediately after arrival, visit the landmark at the harbor - the statue of the Vrouwe van Stavoren. Learn on the spot about the legend surrounding her. Or how about a first bike tour through the town?

Day 2: Stavoren – Makkum, approx. 30 / 50 km

On your first stage, you will cycle almost without any inclines northwards along the coast of the IJsselmeer. On the way, a first stop in Hindeloopen is worthwhile. Decorative house gables, wooden bridges and the harbor give the small town a very special atmosphere. Continue via Workum, which is also worth seeing, to Makkum, your overnight stop today. Visit the Koninklijke Tichelaar, the oldest earthenware factory in the Netherlands, or relax on the sandy beach.

Day 3: Makkum – Terschelling island (boat)

In the morning, you will pass through locks onto the Wadden Sea. The crossing to the island of Terschelling takes about four hours. Enjoy the crossing to the second largest of the West Frisian Islands and let the North Sea wind blow around your nose. With a little luck you can observe seals on the way. On Terschelling you will then have plenty of time to go exploring. Cycle to the kilometer-long sandy beach, pay a visit to the Brandaris lighthouse and sample the cranberry products that originate from the island.

Day 4: Terschelling island – Harlingen (boat), Harlingen – Franeker – Leeuwarden, approx. 35 – 45 km

Early in the morning you will take the ship back to the mainland. The harbor town of Harlingen is your first destination. Stroll through the canal-lined city center before you hop on your bike and head east, inland. Your first destination is Franeker. Visit the Eisinga Planetarium. It dates back to the 18th century and is the oldest functioning planetarium in the world. Continue cycling to Leeuwarden, the capital of Friesland. The leaning De Oldehove - the city's landmark - will immediately catch your eye.

Day 5: Leeuwarden – De Alde Feanen – Grou, approx. 40 km

On today's stage of your journey by bike and boat through Friesland, you will first cycle to De Alde Feanen National Park. The area, characterized by moors, swamp forests, heath landscapes and water areas, is wonderfully suited for discovering plants, observing animals and simply enjoying the panoramic view. With almost no climbing, you will pass fields and meadows to your destination for the day, Grou. The town is a center of Dutch water sports.

Day 6: Grou – Sneek, approx. 30 / 45 km

From tranquil Grou, the route takes you through wide landscapes on quiet bike paths to Sneek. Friesland's second largest city has the country's largest marina and is popular with water sports enthusiasts. Stroll through the picturesque Waterpoort, a 17th-century water gate. It is the only one of its kind in the Netherlands. Also worth a visit is the Frisian Maritime Museum, which gives you insights into the history of Frisian shipping.

Day 7: Sneek – Stavoren, approx. 40 / 50 km, Stavoren – Enkhuizen (boat)

Die letzte Etappe Ihrer Reise führt Sie nach Stavoren zurück. Unterwegs bietet sich ein Zwischenstopp in Heeg an. Dank seiner Lage hatte der kleine, charmante Ort einst gute Handelsbeziehungen zu anderen friesischen Städten. Der rege Handel mit Aal fand zudem weit über die Landesgrenze hinaus bis nach London statt. In Stavoren angekommen, bietet sich erneut eine Erkundungstour am Hafen an. Erinnern Sie die farbenfrohen Häuser nicht auch ein wenig an den Hafen in Kopenhagen? Mit dem Schiff geht es zurück nach Enkhuizen.

Day 8: Individual departure from Enkhuizen

After breakfast your trip by bike and ship already ends. Disembarkation will take place around 09:30. After that you will start your individual departure.
