Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Harderwijk

Use the remaining time in Harderwijk for a wander through the Medieval Hanseatic town. You'll discover the Late Gothic Church of Our Lady, the picturesque town gate and the small tower, dating back to the 17th century. Or you can visit the large Delphinarium and see dolphins, seals and walruses right up close.

Day 2: Harderwijk – Amsterdam, approx. 85 km

Your cycle tour around Amsterdam for sporty cyclists takes you through wide, flat landscapes. Naarden is a good place to make a stopover. The former garrison town has one of the best-preserved fortresses in Europe. Most of the star-shaped fortress is freely accessible. After immersing yourself in the history of Dutch fortress building, cycle to Amsterdam. Take a walk along the canals and through the Vondelpark. Would you like to marvel at world-famous works of art? Then the Rijksmuseum, with over 8000 exhibits, is the place for you.

Day 3: Amsterdam – Enkhuizen, approx. 85 km

Leaving Amsterdam behind you, you first cycle to the small town of Volendam. The former fishing village is known for its traditional costumes. Just a stone's throw away is Edam, famous worldwide for the round cheese of the same name. Today's destination, Enkhuizen, takes you to the western part of the IJsselmeer. Leave your bike and explore the town. At the harbor, the Drommedaris will catch your eye. It is the town's most famous building and once served as a defensive gate to protect the harbor.

Day 4: Enkhuizen – Giethoorn, approx. 75 km + ferry ride

Leaving Amsterdam behind you, you first cycle to the small town of Volendam. The former fishing village is known for its traditional costumes. Just a stone's throw away is Edam, famous worldwide for the round cheese of the same name. Today's destination, Enkhuizen, takes you to the western part of the IJsselmeer. Leave your bike and explore the town. At the harbor, the Drommedaris will catch your eye. It is the town's most famous building and once served as a defensive gate to protect the harbor.

Day 5: Giethoorn – Harderwijk, approx. 80 km

Before you turn your back on Giethoorn, take a boat trip through the romantic canals of the small town. Marvel at the beautiful houses and colorful gardens to your right and left. Relax on the saddle and cross the Weerribben-Wieden National Park, the largest marshland landscape in Western Europe. The small town of Kampen is worth a longer break. The fact that Kampen rose to fame through shipping and trade can still be seen today in the countless impressive buildings. You reach Harderwijk along the narrow Veluwemeer.

Day 6: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
