

The Fulda Cycle Route

6 DAYS / 5 NIGHTS, APPROX. 215 KM
BOOKING CODE: NW-FDGH5

DAILY ROUTE LENGTH ●●●●●
TOPOGRAPHY ●●●●●

Your tour

The cycle tour begins near the Fulda spring on the southern slope of the Wasserkuppe, Hesse's highest mountain. It takes you through an idyllic low mountain landscape, flowering meadows and numerous forests. Inexperienced cyclists, families and pleasure cyclists all get their money's worth on the Fulda Cycle Path between the Rhön, Vogelsberg and Waldhessen. Not only do the unique landscapes feast your eyes, medieval playful little towns like Rotenburg and Melsungen are also worth a look. Exploring the documenta city of Kassel, Bad Hersfeld, the half-timbered town of Hann. Münden and Fulda - the pearl of the Baroque - is a must. The cycle path with few ascents offers numerous rest and refreshment stops along the way, making a tour along the Fulda a relaxing cycling experience.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Gersfeld

The town of Gersfeld is an ideal starting point to begin your cycle tour on the Fulda Cycle Path. Nestled in the Rhön, the town, which is recognised as a climatic health resort, invites you to take a stroll across the historic market square and through the castle park. If you still have some time after your arrival in Gersfeld, visit the Gersfeld Wildlife Park. Observe fallow deer, ibex, pheasants and partridges up close.

Day 2: Gersfeld – Fulda, approx. 40 km + Transfer

The highest mountain in Hesse, the Wasserkuppe, rises to the north of Gersfeld. A transfer will take you and your bike to the summit, known as the cradle of gliding. Ideal for enjoying the sweeping views of the Rhön landscape. On your way downhill, you will pass the small town of Eichenzell shortly before Fulda. A detour to Schloss Fasanerie with its spacious park is well worthwhile. Fulda awaits you with all kinds of historical buildings. A piece of Zwibbelsploutz will taste particularly good after this cycle stage.

Day 3: Fulda – Bad Hersfeld, approx. 55 km

At the foot of the Vogelberg, following the Fulda cycle path, you cycle to the festival town of Bad Hersfeld. A short diversion to Schlitz is worthwhile on the way. The old town, characterised by its four castles, is well worth a tour. The Bad Hersfeld Abbey ruins are the annual venue for the nationally renowned festival. The Kurbad Therme spa offers you peace and relaxation so that you can continue on to Melsungen tomorrow.

Day 4: Bad Hersfeld – Melsungen, approx. 55 km

Follow the course of the Fulda river in the densely wooded north of Hesse. Halfway along the route, you will be greeted by the old landgrave town of Rotenburg an der Fulda. Experience the over 750-year-old history of this town, fortified with walls and turrets, at first hand. The former Cistercian nunnery Haydau near Morschen is no less ancient.

Day 5: Melsungen – Hann. Münden, approx. 65 km

The small medieval town of Melsungen sends you off on your last stage on the Fulda Cycle Path. You reach Guxhagen, which lies on the large Fulda loop. You cycle through the tranquil Fulda valley until you reach Kassel, the „capital of the German Fairytale Route“. The Bergpark Wilhelmshöhe is just as impressive as the Hercules, the city's landmark. The countless parks invite you to relax and the Grimmwelt Museum takes you on a journey into a fairytale past. Your destination Hann. Münden will captivate you with its centuries-old half-timbered architecture and masterpieces of the Weser Renaissance.

Day 6: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
