

The Drava Cycle Tour for Families

7 DAYS / 6 NIGHTS, APPROX. 215 KM
BOOKING CODE: OE-DRLV6

DAILY ROUTE LENGTH ●●●●●
TOPOGRAPHY ●●●●●

Your tour

On the southern side of the Alps, the Drau cycle tour for families leads from Dobbiaco in northern Italy via the sunny town of Lienz to the warm Carinthian lakes near Villach. Past impressive mountain scenery and picturesque floodplain landscapes, the route is mostly flat on well-maintained cycle paths. The Drau bike tour also offers action and family fun off the bike route - whether high up in the climbing forest, downhill on the summer toboggan run or extensive romping in the dwarf park. Again and again, natural bathing lakes, adventure pools and bathing areas located directly along the route tempt you to get off your bike and enjoy yourself in or near the water.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Lienz

We bid you welcome to this sunshine town. That's how Lienz describes itself and is the starting place of your Drava cycling holiday. And the claim is quite justified: they have over 2000 hours of sunshine every year. When you arrive, go for a wander through this charming little town. It's where history meets lively modernity. Many small, traditional shops, craft workshops and boutiques await your visit.

Day 2: Excursion to Innichen, approx. 45 km + train ride

Today your itinerary includes a short trip to Italy. You go to Innichen by train, taking your bikes with you. Follow the young Drava river through the narrow Puster Valley. If you look upwards, to the rugged cliffs, you'll catch glimpses of majestic forts and castles. It's worth stopping every now and then to enjoy the unforgettable views of the Lienz Dolomites.

Day 3: Lienz – Berg / Greifenburg, approx. 35 / 40 km

The route of the Drava cycle path takes you through the picturesque Oberdrautal valley. Enjoy the protected floodplain landscape, which can only be explored by bike! You cycle along former Roman trade routes. Just a few kilometers after Lienz, it is worth making a detour to the Roman town of Aguntum with its museum. You pass the Carinthian Gate and soon reach Oberdrauburg with its historic town center. A short detour to the nature and herb village of Irschen, located slightly off the Drava Cycle Path, gives you the opportunity to explore the world of wild herbs with all your senses. The perfect place for a break, including a refreshing dip in the Drau, is the Drauoase Dellach.

Day 4: Greifenburg – Spittal, approx. 40 km

From Berg or Greifenburg, the route today takes you to Spittal. On your tour, you will see beautiful old farms again and again. Focus on the wide meadows and the impressive panorama of the Dolomites. The Drava cycle path takes you through the heart of nature on beautiful cycle paths without any great effort. In Spittal, you should not miss out on Porcia Castle! The castle is a Renaissance work of art with a three-storey arcaded courtyard and a beautiful park. Lake Millstatt is just a short bike ride away. Hire a pedalo and enjoy the peace and quiet on the idyllic lake.

Day 5: Spittal – Villach, approx. 40 km

You start this cycling stage framed by the imposing mountains of the Carinthian Alps. You cycle along a dike with wonderful panoramic views of the surrounding villages. Over bridges and small footbridges, the Alpe-Adria Cycle Path leads you to Villach. Enchanting nature, grazing cows and many inviting resting places make your bike tour a pure joy! You might think the valley is making way for you. Shortly before Villach, the valley widens and the mountains recede into the background. Villach, Carinthia's second largest city, awaits you. The Dobratsch is the local mountain, it is also called the mountain of butterflies, as it is home to up to 1300 different butterfly species.

Day 6: Excursion to Lake Ossiach or Lake Faak, approx. 45 / 35 km

How you spend today in the vacation region around Villach is entirely up to you - a bike tour around Lake Ossiach or a trip to the beautiful turquoise-blue Lake Faak. No matter what you decide: The warm lakes guarantee a fantastic day of swimming fun for the whole family. On the way to Lake Ossiach or as a stand-alone excursion destination after or before your bike tour, we recommend a visit to the imposing Landskron Castle. The eagle arena with a flight show and a monkey mountain with around 170 Japanese macaques provide special experiences and will amaze children.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
