The Mur Cycle Route as a
Round trip from Graz

From Eur 1049,-

Your tour

Come with us on a voyage of discovery through Styria! Styria owes its nickname „Green Mark“ to its abundance of forests, wide meadows and fields as well as lush vineyards. Along the Mur you will get to know the extremely worth seeing old town of Graz, St. Michael in Lungau surrounded by high mountains, the medieval beer and timber town of Murau, the Mediterranean-like Judenburg in the midst of the Zirbenland and the „grain knife town“ of Bruck an der Mur. As a souvenir, we recommend Styrian pumpkin seed oil and a wonderfully aromatic Swiss stone pine liqueur.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Graz

You will start your Mur bike tour in the Styrian capital Graz. Stroll leisurely through the main square, which forms the centerpiece of the medieval old town. Be sure to explore the surrounding narrow streets with buildings in Renaissance and Baroque style or visit one of the numerous museums. In the evening you can stop for a drink in one of the many restaurants.

Day 2: Transfer Graz – St. Michael

At noon, the transfer bus takes you from the provincial capital of Graz to the idyllic St. Michael in Salzburg's Lungau region. The former mining village is located at 1075 meters above sea level in one of the sunniest regions of Austria. Let your eyes wander to the surrounding high peaks of the Radstädter Tauern, Obertauern and Nockberge mountains. During a walk through the village you should pay a visit to the parish church of St. Michael.

Day 3: Excursion to the source of the Mur, approx. 55 km + transfer

Today your Mur bike tour really gets started, as you get on your bike for the first time. A transfer bus will first take you from St. Michael in the direction of the source of the Mur. On your bike, you'll make a partly very steep ascent to the Sticklerhütte. From there you can only continue on foot. After a hike of about one hour you will reach the source of the Mur at 1898 meters. Enjoy the fresh mountain air and the beautiful view! After the strenuous path to the source of the Mur, you will return to St. Michael after a rapid descent along the course of the Mur past blooming alpine meadows.

Day 4: St. Michael – Murau, approx. 55 km

On your Mur bike tour today you cycle to the brewery town of Murau. The bike path leads you through the river valley framed by high mountains past idyllic farms. Soon you will reach the town of Tamsweg. The historic market square is perfect for a break. You cycle through the most densely wooded area of Styria, where wood processing and wood crafts have a long tradition. In Murau you will encounter imposing wooden buildings, Murau Castle and a town center worth seeing. In the evening, enjoy a glass of the home-brewed Murau beer. Cheers!

Day 5: Murau – Judenburg region, approx. 65 km

The Mur bike tour leads you today through the narrows of the Mur valley at the foot of the Niedere Tauern. You will be accompanied by the Murtalbahn, a historic narrow-gauge railroad. Those interested will visit the associated narrow-gauge railway museum in Frojach. Soon you will see the mighty Frauenburg ruins towering over the Mur Valley from afar. During a visit you will travel back into the past. Today's destination is Judenburg in the Zirbenland region, with its Mediterranean charm. Be sure to visit the highest city tower in Austria, which is home to one of the most modern planetariums in Europe.

Day 6: Judenburg – Bruck an der Mur / Oberaich, approx. 60 km

The cycle path leads you through densely wooded sections, first past one of the oldest churches in Styria - the pilgrimage church of Maria Buch. Via Knittelfeld, the route continues to Leoben. Both of these old industrial towns are convincing with their well-kept old towns and lively pedestrian zones, thanks to their successful reconstruction of the past. With the historic trading town of Bruck an der Mur you will soon have reached your stage destination. A tour of the old town is the best way to explore the city at the confluence of the Mürz and Mur rivers. Discover the gothic Kornmesserhaus and enjoy the fantastic view of the surrounding countryside from the Schlossberg plateau.

Day 7: Bruck an der Mur – Graz, approx. 60 km

Through the Murtal valley, which narrows for a short time, you will soon reach Fronleiten. Plan a stop at the main bridge, enjoy the view of the picturesque silhouette of the city and stroll through the historic market. Along the way in the direction of Graz you will experience pure nature! High rock faces, old farms and orchards line your path. With Graz you have reached the destination of your Mur bike tour. Use the time to explore the city in more detail. Be sure to visit the 123-meter Schlossberg with the city's landmark - the centuries-old clock tower. From up here you have a magnificent view over the city! If your legs are too tired after the efforts of the last days, you can also use the cable car up there!

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
