Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Munich

Welcome to the white-blue metropolis of Munich. If you have booked rental bikes, they will be waiting for you at your hotel. Take some time to explore this royal city. Munich was founded as early as the 12th century. With all of the sights this city has to offer, you'll definitely find your own personal highlight among them. Munich Hofbräuhaus is known the world over for its traditional beer. Are you more interested in culture? Then you'll love the internationally known museums, galleries or theatres.

Day 2: Munich – Starnberger See, approx. 45 – 60 km

The first stage of your cycle tour takes you through Forstenrieder Park to the famous Lake Starnberg. Quaint villages, villas and small castles line the shores of the picturesque lake. Upper Bavaria looks like something out of a picture book here! And if you need to cool off, just jump into the crystal-clear water at one of the many bathing spots.

Day 3: Starnberger See – Murnau am Staffelsee, approx. 30 km

Passing the Riegsee lake, you reach Murnau and the Murnauer Moos, a huge, unspoiled moor. Due to the large number of watercourses and lakes, an unrivalled wealth of species has been preserved here, which is particularly effective against the majestic Alpine panorama. Expressionists such as Kandinsky were already inspired by this impressively beautiful landscape. They called the region the Blue Land. In Murnau, you can get closer to the artists' works in one of the museums.

Day 4: Murnau on Lake Staffelsee – Bad Tölz, approx. 50 km

You will first cycle to the lake Kochelsee and then further to Benediktbeuern. As early as the 8th century, a monastery was founded at the foot of the 1800 metre high Benediktenwand mountain range. Bad Tölz, the famous mud and saltwater spa, surprises visitors with colourful facade paintings. The extensive spa gardens offer a perfect opportunity to stop for a break. German novelist Thomas Mann was one of the most famous guests in the spa town.

Day 5: Bad Tölz - Munich, approx. 60 km

The Isar river leads you out of Bad Tölz today. Following the Isar cycle path, you pedal through green landscape to Wolfratshausen. The historic rafter town is situated idyllically between Isar and Loisach. Enjoy the tranquility this cycling holiday offers, along the river. Maybe spend some time watching the rafters. Today's route has a number of hills to tackle. But the Bavarian capital is not long in coming now. The lively city of Munich is expecting you! Reward yourself in the English Garden, in one of the beer gardens, with a sausage and be inspired by the Bavarian capital's Marienplatz.

Day 6: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
