Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Munich

Welcome to the white-blue metropolis of Munich. If you have booked rental bikes, they will be waiting for you at your hotel. Take some time to explore this royal city. Munich was founded as early as the 12th century. With all of the sights this city has to offer, you'll definitely find your own personal highlight among them. Munich Hofbräuhaus is known the world over for its traditional beer. Are you more interested in culture? Then you'll love the internationally known museums, galleries or theatres.

Day 2: München – Bad Tölz, approx. 60 km

Your bike tour from Munich to Salzburg starts along the Isar and takes you through old floodplain forests to Wolfratshausen. Here, adventurous cyclists can take a raft trip on the Isar and Loisach rivers. Continue cycling to Bad Tölz, the well-known mud and brine spa with very beautiful parks and green spaces. In Bad Tölz's old town, stroll along Market Street and admire the facades decorated with Lüftl paintings. If you feel like climbing high, a view of the Isar valley from the Kalvarienberg mountain will reward you for your efforts.

Day 3: Bad Tölz – Schliersee, approx. 35 km

Today's stage will take you along the edge of the Alps to Tegernsee, one of the best-known lakes and home to one of the most popular Bavarian beers. Enjoy the beautiful lake panorama in the small town of Gmund before cycling to Schliersee. This lake is typical for the Alpine foothills and is best explored from aboard a ship.

Day 4: Schliersee – Bad Feilnbach, approx. 35 km

First you will cycle along the shore of Schliersee, afterwards your route will be slightly hilly. The city at the foot of Mount Wendelstein is a famous mud spa. Due to the mild climate and 30.000 fruit trees which grow in the region, Bad Feilnbach is also known as the Bavarian Meran. As today's stage is relatively short, you will have time to enjoy beautiful Upper Bavaria.

Day 5: Bad Feilnbach – Lake Chiemsee, approx. 35 / 50 km

Today you will cycle through the largest turf harvesting site in Bavaria. After crossing over the Inn river you will come to Neubuurn, which was once an important shipbuilding site. Cycling through Frasdorf with its cave museum you will finally come to the lake Chiemsee. As today's route is short, you should take a trip to the Herren- und Frauenchiemsee islands.

Day 6: Chiemsee – Inzell, approx. 30 / 45 km

Cycling around the Hochfelln, the local Chiemgau mountain, you will continue on along flat paths to Adelholzen, which is one of the oldest baths with healing waters in Bavaria. The Museum of Natural History and Mammoth Museum is located in Siegsdorf. The tour then leads you along the Roten Traun to the former mining village of Inzell which is now a spa town renowned for its clean, fresh air.

Day 7: Inzell – Salzburg, approx. 50 km

If you have been cycling along the edge of the mountains so far, you will now be cycling through narrow valleys. In Schneizlreuth you reach the Saalach river, which takes you to the spa town of Bad Reichenhall. Continue on the Saline path towards Salzburg. The Mozart and Festival City welcomes its guests with the Hohensalzburg Fortress towering over the city, Mirabell Palace, Mozart's birthplace or the DomQuartier.

Day 8: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
