Your tour

The Moselle makes its way from the Vosges Mountains in north-eastern France to where it flows into the Rhine. And you are right in the middle of it – on a section between Nancy and Trier! On our journey along the Moselle, you start in the heart of Lorraine. You first follow the French Moselle along the Moselle Canal. Via Pont-à-Mousson you reach Metz, which will impress you with its beautiful Gothic cathedral, a wealth of sublime buildings and museums. Continue via Thionville to the border triangle of Germany, France and Luxembourg. At Perl you will reach the German Moselle. As far as Trier, you follow the Moselle valley lined with vineyards, which was already populated in Roman times. It was the Romans who cultivated the vineyards here.

Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Nancy

Your bike tour in Lorraine begins in Nancy, the former capital of the Dukes of Lorraine. Nestled in the surrounding wooded hills, Nancy has an old town that is well worth seeing, with a mix of buildings from different eras. Especially worth seeing is the classicistic Place Stanislas. With its gilded grilles and magnificent fountains, it is one of the most beautiful squares in Europe. Try some of the city's specialties: bergamot sweets, macarons and baba au rhum. Bon appétit!

Day 2: Nancy – Pont-à-Mousson, approx. 40 km

You follow the course of the Meurthe River, which meets the Moselle at Custines. Along the turns of the Moselle you will reach Pont-à-Mousson. The town owes its name to one of the few bridges over the Moselle at the time and translates as Bridge at Mousson. The castle above the town that controlled the Moselle in the Middle Ages is now in ruins. Take a long walk up there and enjoy the view of the town and the Moselle valley.

Day 3: Pont-à-Mousson – Metz, approx. 35 km

Today's stage of your bike tour in Lorraine takes you along the Moselle Cycle Path to Metz. The silhouette of the city is dominated by the impressive Saint-Étienne Cathedral. Discover other treasures of the more than 3000-year-old city during a walk. Art lovers will find what they are looking for at the Centre Pompidou-Metz and coffee lovers will get their money's worth in the lively street cafés. A speciality of Metz is the mirabelle plum. Whether in confectionery, in tarts or in schnapps - an annual mirabelle plum festival is even dedicated to the golden-yellow fruit.

Day 4: Metz – Thionville, approx. 35 km

You cycle along the French Moselle to Thionville with practically no incline. Before you reach the city, it's worth making a detour to Uckange. The Parc du Haute-Fourneau U4 there, a disused blast furnace park, provides an insight into iron and steel production in Lorraine, which was once widespread in the region. In your destination for the day, Thionville, take an extensive walk through town, passing the Flea Tower Museum, the Belfry and St. Maximin Church.

Day 5: Thionville – Perl, approx. 30 km

Today your bike tour leads you from Lorraine into the border triangle of Germany, France and Luxembourg. Not far from your stage destination Perl you will cross the French-German border. The wine village of Perl is famous for its reconstructed Roman Villa Borg. Let the archaeological open-air museum take you back to the time of the Romans and their everyday life. Enjoy delicate wines in the only wine-growing community in the Saarland and get in the mood for the coming stages along the German Moselle.

Day 6: Perl – Treves, approx. 50 km

You follow the course of the Moselle, which also marks the border with Luxembourg up to the town of Wasserbillig. Along the river, which is lined with vineyards on both sides, you cycle via Konz to Trier. Take plenty of time to get to know Germany's oldest city during an exploratory tour. There is much to see: the Porta Nigra, the amphitheater, the Imperial Baths, the Roman Bridge, the Trier Cathedral, the Karl Marx House and and and...

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
