Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Saarbrücken

Your tour begins in the capital city of Saarland, in the very Western part of Germany. The region was the focus of German and French interests for centuries and was completely destroyed in 1677 and rebuilt as a Baroque city. Why not visit the impressive castle and its surrounds or stroll through the heart of the St. Johann city quarter. Booked rental bicycles are available for collection in your hotel.

Day 2: Saarbrücken – Saarlouis, approx. 30 km

The first stage of your cycle tour along the Saar takes you to the Völklingen Ironworks. This impressive industrial monument once served as an ironworks and today offers adventurous insights into the various processing plants and blast furnaces. Continue to your destination for the day, Saarlouis. The fortified town was built by order of the French King Louis XIV, the Sun King. He liked it so much that he gave it his name. The remains of the star-shaped fortress can still be seen in the old town today.

Day 3: Saarlouis – Mettlach, approx. 35 km

Today we start by travelling through the Merzig countryside. Characterised by many fruit trees, the region around Merzig is often referred to as the „Äppelkischd“ of the Saarland. Along the Saar, you will reach the famous Saar Loop shortly before Mettlach. If you would like to take a look at it, it is worth climbing up to the Cloef viewpoint. Enjoy the far-reaching views over the river before you reach your destination for the day, Mettlach. The Old Tower and the Ceramics Museum are particularly worth a visit. It provides an insight into the 250-year history of the famous ceramics manufacturer Villeroy & Boch.

Day 4: Mettlach – Trier, approx. 50 km

In the morning you will have the chance to walk to the viewing point of the Saar Bend; the fantastic panoramic view is definitely worth the small effort. Then you will continue along the Saar Cycle Path through beautiful forests. You will be able to see the castle which towers over the town of Saarburg with its winding laneways from a distance. In Treves you shouldn't miss the historical town centre or you could visit the Roman gate of Porta Nigra.

Day 5: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
