Itinerary / Services

Your tour:

This popular tour on the Altmühl Cycle Path takes you through the gentle Franconian Lake District Region and the impressive valley that the river Altmühl has cut through the Franconian Jura. From Rothenburg ob der Tauber you will cycle to Regensburg, while exploring stunning castles and palaces. Most of the time you cycle alongside the Altmühl river until it flows in the Danube in Kelheim. The last stage to Regensburg you travel on the famous Danube cycle path.

Day 1: Individual arrival in Rothenburg

Rothenburg ob der Tauber is the epitome of a romantic medieval town and worth seeing, particularly for visitors from abroad. The town was immortalised by artists such as Spitzweg and Richter. Enjoy the evening strolling around the small and narrow ways of this old town with its special flair.

Day 2: Rothenburg – Ansbach, approx. 50 km

You will start your journey in the Tauber valley and it won't take long before you reach the river Altmühl. Alternatively you can take a challenging, but picturesque route via the Altmühl source (approx. 10 km longer). Cycle past the Zollern Castle in Colm and you will soon reach Ansbach.

Day 3: Ansbach – Wettelsheim / Treuchtlingen, approx. 60 km

Today you cycle leisurely through the Franconian Lake District. Take a long break at the Altmühlsee Lake! Afterwards you cycle to Gunzenhausen, which is located right on the former border of the Roman Empire, the famous Limes. Your destination for today is either the small town of Treuchtlingen or the even smaller but beautiful Wettelsheim just a few kilometres away.

Day 4: Treuchtlingen – Eichstätt, approx. 50 km

On today's stage the valley becomes narrower and the river Altmühl cuts deep into the Jurassic rock. The 12 Apostels, an impressive rock formation, are a marvellous sight. Again and again you will cycle past mighty castles on your journey to Eichstätt, a former bishop city characterised by charming Baroque buildings.

Day 5: Eichstätt – Riedenburg, approx. 75 km

Before you leave Eichstätt, you should take the opportunity to visit the Jura Museum, where you can view numerous dinosaur fossils from the surrounding areas. Today your bike tour will take you through the juniper heath of the Altmühl valley and by the quite nice castle Burg Kipfenberg. You will pass Beilngries, which is just in between Altmühl river and the Main-Danube-Canal, and Dietfurt, before you reach Riedenburg.

Day 6: Riedenburg – Regensburg, approx. 60 km

The last kilometres on the Altmühl cycle path will lead you to Kelheim. If you wish, you can travel this first part of today's stage by boat (not included). In Kelheim the famous "Befreiungshalle" ("Hall of Liberation") is sure worth a visit, before you cycle on. Now you follow the signs of the Danube cycle path towards Regensburg. The old part of the town has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Day 7: Individual departure or extension of stay

After breakfast, you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
