Itinerary / Services

Your tour:

Off to Bavaria: to the state of the white-blue flag, of rustic bon vivants and warm hospitality, to the state with an incredible number of breweries, but also an area of great history and Baroque. To a completely "new Bavaria", far away from all those Bavarian clichés! The unspoiled countryside will impress you with its diversity and contrariness.

The five rivers, Vils, Naab, Danube, Altmühl and Pegnitz will accompany you on your tour. Take time to enjoy the lovely old towns, the enchanting little villages and the varied countryside along the way. Experience the raw warmth of the people of the Upper Palatinate, the charm of Middle Franconia and the delicacies of Bavarian cuisine.

Day 1: Individual arrival in Nuremberg

Nuremberg - thousand years of history: The old imperial town, with its mighty castle, famous churches and museums attracts tourists from all over the world. Right in the centre of this metropolis with half a million inhabitants, the town houses, proud churches, the castle and 5 km of walls that circle the town have all been resurrected.

Day 2: Nuremberg – Berching, approx. 65 km

Starting in Nuremberg, you head in a south-easterly direction, following the Pegnitz and Ludwig-Danube-Main canal. Here, at the edge of the Franconian Uplands, cycling is easy, with no hills to worry about. From afar, the striking church towers of the old town and the ruins of Wolfstein Castle on the hills to the back of the town welcome you! Via Freystadt, you get to the Main-Danube-Canal, which now shows you the way. Over quite some distance, you simply roll right next to the canal, downstream. And soon reach today's destination, Berching.

Day 3: Berching – Regensburg, approx. 95 km

Today you'll be cycling along different waterways of the Altmühl river, known especially for their unspoiled nature. Via Dietfurt and Riedenburg, you get to Essing, which is home to one of the favourite holiday snaps of the entire Altmühl Valley. The two-storied tower with its 46-meter-long wooden bridge. Following a level route, you now pedal past the well-known stalactite cave, Schulerloch, to Kelheim. Passing wooded slopes, you soon reach Regensburg.

Day 4: Regensburg – Amberg, approx. 70 km

You leave Regensburg and cycle along the Naab, meadows, forests and fields lining your way. Along both sides of the river you'll see Jurassic rocks, some up to 100 metres tall, rising up over the pretty valley. At the castle ruins of Kallmünz, you'll see the rivers change. This is where the Vils merges into the Naab. Those of you who are keen on culture should take a break at Hammerherrenschloss Castle in Theuern, before continuing on to Amberg.

Day 5: Amberg – Nuremberg, approx. 75 km

After a level section of the route, today you will encounter more hills. You cross one of the most wooded regions of Germany, "Hersbruck Switzerland". The town of Hersbruck was the centre of hop growing and trade for hundreds of years, as witnessed still today by the pulleys and gables at the tops of the restored half-timber-framed houses. You leave Hersbruck through the famous water gate, and set off into Pegnitz Valley and its almost entirely unspoiled river countryside. Following lush green avenues and cycling through extensive parkland, you finally arrive in Nuremberg.

Day 6. Individual departure

Your tour along the five Bavarian rivers unfortunately comes to an end today, with your individual departure. If, however, you prefer to stay longer, we can easily book you an extra night.
