Itinerary

Your tour:

The big Neckar cycle tour takes you through the provinces from Donaueschingen to Heidelberg, straight through the whole county of Baden-Württemberg. The well-balanced mixture of culture and nature is what makes this tour so appealing: diverse scenery such as the Black Forest and the Swabian Alb on the one hand and well-known towns such as Tübingen, Stuttgart or Heidelberg on the other.

Day 1: Individual arrival in Donaueschingen

In Donaueschingen, the Brigach and Breg rivers merge to form the Danube. However the Romans once thought that the spring in the castle gardens was the source of the Danube. You can still visit the source of the Danube in Donaueschingen today, right in the park of a very impressive castle, where the Fürstenberg family once lived.

Day 2: Donaueschingen – Rottweil, approx. 30 km

Up on the high Baar plateau, you cycle between the Black Forest and the Swabian Alb to Schwenningen, where you reach the much narrower Neckar river. Your route continues to Rottweil, Baden-Württemberg's oldest town which features a medieval centre.

Day 3: Rottweil – Sulz / Glatt, approx. 30 / 40 km

Cycling north you head downstream along the Neckar, which now cuts a deep path into the valley and gradually becomes wider and wider. The few villages along the way are idyllically situated and you cycle through Oberndorf, which is famous for its Swabian-Alemannic Carnival, to finally arrive in Sulz.

Day 4: Sulz / Glatt – Tübingen, approx. 55 / 45 km

Take a deserved break in Horb, and visit the abbey church and the Schurkenturm tower. Pedal now to Rottenburg. It suffered many town fires in the past and no longer has a medieval townscape but a Baroque style. You continue on to Tübingen. Visit the lovely old town and Hohentübingen Castle, which gives you great views of the town.

Day 5: Tübingen – Esslingen, approx. 55 km

You leave this lively town and soon pedal past various bathing lakes - great for a refreshening swim. Downstream along the Neckar you cycle through the valley to Plochingen which features a tower by Hundertwasser. Esslingen, which escaped damage from the war, is a tempting town to visit with its special historic flair.

Day 6: Esslingen – Marbach / Freiberg, approx. 40 / 45 km

You cycle to Stuttgart first, capital of the state of Baden-Württemberg and its largest town. Take a break here and visit the Mercedes-Benz museum or the old castle. You pedal on passing vineyards to Ludwigsburg. Here you can become familiar with the Neckar valley as a cradle of poets and philosophers - Marbach is the town in which Friedrich Schiller was born.

Day 7: Marbach / Freiberg – Bad Friedrichshall / Neckarsulm, approx. 50 – 60 km

You follow the winding river through picturesque vineyards to Lauffen, where you should allow yourself a glass of tasty Katzenbeisser. From Heilbronn, a hub for wine-production and the wine trade, you cycle along the romantic Burgenstrasse to Neckarsulm.

Day 8: Bad Friedrichshall / Neckarsulm – Eberbach, approx. 45 / 50 km

In Neckarsulm, it's worth visiting the NSU museum with many historic bikes and cars. This section takes you past all kinds of castles including the residence of Götz von Berlichingen. Goethe wrote a play based on him and is considered a prominent work in the "Sturm und Drang" Period. The Staufer town of Eberbach used to be known for its handicraft professions, and a speciality of the town was its sandstone quarry.

Day 9: Eberbach – Heidelberg, approx. 35 km

The Neckar winds its way through the Odenwald mountain range and forms the border between Hesse and Baden-Württemberg. The famous university town of Heidelberg waits for your arrival with a well-known castle ruin which is definitely worth a visit. You have simply fantastic views of the town from the castle.

Day 10: Individual departure or extension of stay

After breakfast, you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
